WEDDINGS : FAQ's

How do we book the Registrar?

Once a date has been chosen with the hotel there are a few forms for you to complete. We will then arrange the ceremony with the registrars who will in turn contact you to confirm. Fee payable directly.

When can we have access to the hotel to begin setting up?

You can arrive at the hotel to set up on the day at 09am, or if you prefer you can start setting up on the day before after 6pm provided the room is not booked for another event.

Will the staff keep our table decorations at the end of night?

We will endeavour to keep all table decorations, however we cannot be held responsible for missing or damage items.

Are candles allowed?

Candles can be used within the hotel and Marquee. Please ensure all candles are placed in candle holders, naked flames are not permitted.

Do you host more than one wedding a day?

Tudor Park Marriott hotel & Country Club have multi license location and can cater for up to two weddings per day.

What can we expect from a food tasting?

Food tastings are available at no additional charge. You will meet with our Head Chef and try one starter, one main and one dessert from our wedding menu. If you would like other people to attend your food tasting, additional charges per person will apply.
